MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Objectives

Lavenham Community Land Trust is for all members of our community. It provides a structure within which everyone can support and participate in initiatives to improve our living and working environment now and for the future.

Our objectives are to support the provision of the following for the benefit of the community:-

- Community ownership;
- Maintain and improve the physical, social and economic infrastructure within the parish of Lavenham;
- Education - to work with and alongside our primary school and pre-school;
- Provide an opportunity for people and organisations to contribute to the community.

Membership

Full and Associate Membership is available to:

- Any individual over the age of 18 living or working in Lavenham,
- Any business or society active in Lavenham, represented by a nominated person who supports the objectives of the Trust and agrees to be bound by its Rules,

Full Membership requires a membership fee of £1. Full members can participate in the future of the LCLT and vote at meetings.

Associate Membership is free.

Associate members cannot vote at meetings

Membership will be governed by the relevant provisions included within the Rules.
